

Holmdel's 23rd Annual Greenway Walk and Earth Day Festival at Bayonet Farm

Sunday, April 30, 2023

Start the day with a Guided Hike

Explore trails on Bayonet Farm and the Ramonessin Section of Holmdel Park for about a 1.5-2 mile loop returning to enjoy the Earth Day festivities

Suitable for walkers of all ages. Meet at the Harding House at 11:00. Park in festival parking

Guided Tours of the gracious, historic Harding House will give a glimpse into the world of the late heiress who lived there and hosted movie stars of the day! Tours are free but limited. Visit the Welcome Center upon entering the Festival grounds for programs and tour tickets.

INFORMATIONAL EXHIBITS

Answer your global and gardening questions!

- ◆ Monmouth County Master Gardeners
- ◆ Monmouth County Master Composters
- ◆ A solar powered van sponsored by Antinanco Earth Arts School
- ◆ Save Coastal Wildlife and Climate Change Lobby
- ◆ Holmdel Green Team
- ◆ Holmdel Historic Society (showcasing an original Holmdel prohibition whiskey still!)
- ◆ Festival co-sponsor, Citizens for Informed Land Use (CILU) will present Holmdel environmental issues
- ◆ Festival co-sponsor, Holmdel Environmental Commission will display a watershed model and discuss storm water management issues

Continue with Earth Day Festival
12:00 to 5:00 p.m.

SHOWS FOR KIDS

- ◆ Monmouth County Park Nature Van
- ◆ What's the Buzz with Bees?
- ◆ Mammal Mania live rescue animals
- ◆ Fossil Hunting with Paleontologist Dr. J. Brown
- ◆ Touch Mother Earth Drum Circle
- ◆ Nature Crafts for kids

LIVE ROCK/FOLK BANDS

Headlined by Late 4 Lunch

FOOD

Delicious homemade sandwiches, hot dogs, and fresh baked goodies will be for sale at the Red Barn Deli and Olde Fashioned Bake Shoppe!

Bayonet Farm Earth Day Tee Shirts, reusable bags, and native plants will also be for sale.

Admission, shows, tours and parking are all free!

The Festival will cancel for inclement weather. For further information, call Karen at (908) 601-7603. For cancellation information, please visit the CILU Facebook page: Citizens for Informed Land Use-CILU